VICTORIA KIRBY

Director, Furman University Center for Corporate and Professional Development and the Women's Leadership Institute of Furman 864.294.2156
victoria.kirby@furman.edu

Under Victoria's leadership as Director, The Center for Corporate and Professional Development provides world-class corporate education advancement to leaders across the globe through performance optimization on every level.

Victoria, also a co-founder and managing principal for a leading network integration company in the southeastern United States negotiated the profitable acquisition and transition of the company to a publicly held communications and data services provider. As Vice President of Integrated Services, she was instrumental in achieving market launches and company development across the southeast.

Victoria has worked with top leaders from companies such as General Electric Global, ScanSource, Inc., Draexlmaier, Michelin, Lockheed Martin, Bausch & Lomb, Velux USA, Bon Secours St. Francis Health System, Greenville Health System, TD Bank, Kohler, Michelin USA and American Airlines. She has also worked with foreign diplomats to enhance international trade relations, and as an international facilitator has led seminars and coached individuals representing countries including Germany, Russia, Canada, Austria, Italy, France, Australia, China, Japan, and Spain.

Victoria is a graduate of Furman University and The Protocol School of Washington. She is a seasoned international traveler who enjoys cycling and holds a black belt in Tae Kwon Do.