

Critical Issues 2013: Childhood Obesity in SC
OneSouthCarolina Preconference Agenda
Hilton Head Marriott Resort & Spa
Friday March 1, 2013

A program of the Riley Institute at Furman in partnership with the South Carolina Medical Association

Program Emcee: Renée Buyck Romberger, FACHE, VP Community Health Policy and Strategy, Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System, Riley Fellow (Spartanburg, SC)

1:00 p.m.

Welcome and Why We are Here

Mitch Kennedy, Community Services Director, City of Spartanburg (Spartanburg, SC)
Vincent J. Degenhart, MD, Chair, South Carolina Medical Association Childhood Obesity Task Force (Columbia, SC)
Jill Fuson, MPPA, Manager of Policy Events, the Riley Institute (Greenville, SC)

1:10 – 1:40

The State of Childhood Obesity in SC

Catherine B. Templeton, JD, Director, SC Department of Health and Environmental Control (Columbia, SC)

At the end of the session the attendee should be able to:

- Discuss current statistics regarding childhood obesity in South Carolina and nationwide as well as implications for health, workforce productivity and economic growth

1:40 – 2:10

Role of Community Leadership in Childhood Obesity Prevention

TBA

At the end of the session the attendee should be able to:

- Be familiar with the impact of community policy and environment on childhood obesity
- Review recommendations for community leader involvement in obesity prevention public health / community efforts
- Discuss example of effective community efforts to reduce childhood obesity
- Be familiar with resources available for community leaders

2:10 – 2:55

SC in Action: Addressing the Built Environment through Statewide Partnerships

Eat Smart Move More

Amy Splittgerber, MEd, Director, Eat Smart Move More South Carolina (Irmo, SC)

Working Well

TBA, South Carolina Hospital Association (Columbia, SC)

Healthy Schools

Lynn Hammond, Program Manager, SC Healthy Schools, South Carolina Department of Education (Columbia, SC)

South Carolina Medical Association Childhood Obesity Taskforce

Vincent J. Degenhart, MD, Chair, South Carolina Medical Association Childhood Obesity Task Force (Columbia, SC)

At the end of the session the attendee should be able to:

- Discuss the mission, vision, strategies, and goals of these statewide programs
- Discuss current and potential activities and future planned actions

2:55 – 3:15

BREAK with exercise activity

Healthy Schools

A OneSouthCarolina statewide project championed by graduates of the Riley Institute at Furman's Diversity Leaders Initiative

3:15 – 3:50

SC in Action: Addressing the Built Environment through Local Partnerships

The Lean Team Model and “Docs Adopt”/School Wellness Initiative

Janice Key, MD, Director, MUSC Boeing Center for Children’s Wellness, School and Community Programs (Charleston, SC)

Let’s Go! Colleton County

Melissa Buckner, Director of “Eat Smart, Move More”-- Colleton County – To be confirmed

Culinary Creations

Ron Jones, Culinary Specialist, Greenville County Schools Food and Nutrition Services

At the end of the session the attendee should be able to:

- Discuss the strategies, goals, and objectives of these programs
- Discuss current community engagement activities and action planned for the future
- Identify model implementation strategies in schools, worksite, faith, community and healthcare setting

3:50 – 4:15

Foundations and Grant Opportunities

Moderator, Amy Splittgerber

Erica Kirby, Senior Research Consultant and Grant Manager, BlueCross BlueShield of SC Foundation (Columbia, SC) – To be confirmed
Duke Endowment Rep?

Community Transformation Grants

4:15 – 4:55

SC in Action Roundtable Discussion: Q & A with Speakers

Panel Members:

Lynn Hammond
Janice Key
Amy Splittgerber
Vince Degenhart
Ron Jones
Melissa Buckner
Erica Kirby

At the end of the session the attendee should be able to:

- Engage in dialog about barriers to addressing childhood obesity in South Carolina
- Review resources, potential partnerships and opportunities
- Identify model implementation strategies in schools, worksite, faith, community and healthcare setting
- Identify intersections in initiatives and daily work

4:55

Closing Remarks

Renée Buyck Romberger

Healthy Schools

A OneSouthCarolina statewide project championed by graduates of the Riley Institute at Furman’s Diversity Leaders Initiative

