

On The Move

The Riley Institute at Furman announces Midlands Diversity Leaders Initiative Class III Graduates

Jul 20, 2010

Share This Article

COLUMBIA, SC - July 20, 2010 - The Riley Institute at Furman is pleased to announce the commencement of Class III of the Midlands Diversity Leaders Initiative.

Chosen by nomination and application, participants in the DLI are leaders from all demographic groups and sectors: corporate, non-profit, faith-based, education and public officials, to build leadership skills while also examining and pursuing solutions to challenges and opportunities most pressing to our communities.

Congratulations to graduates of Class III of the Midlands Diversity Leaders Initiative:

Chris Angel, Hammond School

Henri E. Baskins, AT & T

Mickey Beckham, Palmetto Volunteers in Medicine

Bob Bouyea, SC Biz News

Debra Brathwaite, Richland County School District One

Hogan Brown, South Carolina Education Lottery

Tushar Chikhliker, Nexsen Pruet, LLC

T. Alston DeVenny Jr., Folks, Khoury & DeVenny, LLC

Alfred Mae Drakeford, City of Camden

Sheila L. Elliott, Francis Burns United Methodist Church

Cindy Elsberry, Horry County School District

Rosalind S. Farley, Michelin North America

Lawrence E. Flynn III, Pope Zeigler, LLC

Sara June Goldstein, South Carolina Arts Commission

Jeffrey Graham, City of Camden

Maxie Haltiwanger, Haynsworth Sinkler Boyd, PA

Stuart A. Hamilton, Eau Claire Cooperative Health Centers

Mary Margaret Hopkins, South Carolina Education Lottery

Tom F. Hudson, SC School Improvement Council

Bruce Hughes, Blue Cross Blue Shield of South Carolina

Mary Anne Jacobs, Time Warner Cable/SCCTA

Allison Jacques, South Carolina Department of Education

Sandra Jones, Iglesia Luterana Manantial de Vida

Sherri Lydon, Law Offices of Sherri A. Lydon

Kevin Markland, Wachovia Bank North America

Mark Mayson, Palmetto Health Baptist

Vivian F. McGhaney, Sumter County

Olivier Mouly, Michelin North America

Lynn Stokes Murray, McNair Law Firm

Marc Mylott, City of Columbia

John Nichols, Bluestein, Nichols, Thompson, & Delgado, LLC

Hazel Parker, South Carolina Department of Social Services

Carlos Primus, Colonial Life Insurance/SC School Improvement Council

Mark Quinn, SCETV

Otis Rawl, SC Chamber of Commerce

Cleo Richardson, Lee County School District

Jasmine Rogers, Childs and Halligan

Linda Salane, The Leadership Institute at Columbia College

Deborah Tapley, Palmetto Health

Myriam Torres, Consortium for Latino Immigration Studies/Arnold School of Public Health

Nancy Vinson, Coastal Conservation League

Tripp Whitener, First Citizens Bank

Preston H. Winkler, Greater Columbia Community Relations Council

The Riley Institute Diversity Leaders Initiative is made possible through the generous support of Wachovia/Wells Fargo, Michelin, NA, AnMed Health, SCRA, the Greenville Hospital System, Spartanburg Regional Hospital System, SCBiz, and Palmetto Health.

The Riley Institute at Furman University

<http://riley.furman.edu>