

Posted on Mon, Jul. 11, 2011

Camden Mayor Graham first mayors' group president

Camden Mayor Jeffrey Graham, who in 2008 became the youngest South Carolina mayor at 26, has another first: being the first president of the new Association of S.C. Mayors

More information

The mayors' group was formed last month under the umbrella of the Municipal Association of South Carolina to provide opportunities for mayors to network and share ideas.

Other officials – such as coroners, sheriffs and solicitors – already have their own associations. There are about 270 mayors in South Carolina.

– John Monk