

May 7, 2011

Thumbs Up: Diversity leaders honored

Thumbs Up to the Upstate leaders honored earlier this week for their unwavering commitment to encouraging diversity in the Upstate. Honored at the Seventh Annual Upstate Diversity Leadership Awards Dinner were: Fairforest Elementary School of Spartanburg, the William "Bill" T. Wylie Valued Lives Award for School Excellence; Carla Littlejohn, a senior at Greenville Technical Charter High School, Outstanding High School Student Award; Jackeline Galvez, a Clemson University student, Outstanding College Student Award; MLK Dream Weekend, The Outstanding Nonprofit Organization; Erwin-Penland, Outstanding Business Award; Chirinjev Peterson, director of International Education at Greenville Tech, Outstanding Contribution to International Diversity Award; Judith Prince, vice chancellor at USC Upstate, Calder D. Ehrmann Outstanding Individual Award. This dinner was presented by Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System and hosted by the Riley Institute at Furman, and the Greenville, Spartanburg and Anderson Chambers of Commerce.

---

