SC superintendent to headline Montessori education summit at Lander

Molly Spearman, state superintendent and Lander University alumna, will headline a summit on Montessori education in South Carolina's public schools at Lander University's Josephine B. Abney Cultural Center Auditorium from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sept. 11. The event is sponsored by Lander's Montessori and Teacher Education programs.

Other speakers include Keith Whitescarcher and Jacqueline Cossentino with the National Center for Montessori in the Public Sector, and Brooke Culclasure, research director of The Riley Institute at Furman.
University. Culclasure will share preliminary findings from a five-year study funded by Greenwood's Self Family Foundation on public Montessori in South Carolina.

Registration is $50 before Sept. 4 and $60 at the door. Morning coffee and lunch are included in the registration fee. Register online at www.lumontessori.weebly.com.
