

November 14, 2018

#RileyFellows in the News

Maria Arroyo (Midlands, Spring 2013) of The Parenting Center of Lexington One was recognized as Parent Educator of the Year at the 2018 Parents as Teachers International Conference. Read more.

Furman Trustee Emeritus Merl Code (Upstate, Spring 2006) is the recipient of the Visionary Leadership Award, which honors lifelong service to others through individual endeavors and community involvement. Read more.

Franklin Foster (Lowcountry, Fall 2017), superintendent of Colleton County School District, was appointed to the Limestone College Board of Trustees. Read more.

Tim Hardee (Upstate, Fall 2012), president of the S.C. Technical College System, biked 800 miles to help raise about $90,000 for student scholarships and awareness about higher education institutions. Read more.

State Rep. Weston J. Newton (Lowcountry, Fall 2016) will receive the inaugural Carl Levin Award for Effective Oversight from the Levin Center at Wayne State University Law School on November 16 in Washington, D.C. Read more.

The S.C. Chamber of Commerce's newly elected officers and board of directors include Mike Shetterly (Upstate, Fall 2010) as general counsel, David Lominack (Upstate, Fall 2012) as commerce chair, and Kathy Helms (Midlands, Fall 2007). Read more.

Join us for the fourteenth annual Wilkins Awards Dinner January 8 in Columbia. Charlotte Berry (Midlands, Fall 2007) will receive the award for civic leadership, and Sen. John W. Matthews, Jr. (District 39 – Orangeburg) will receive the award for legislative leadership. Learn more.