

October 18, 2017

#RileyFellows in the News

Riley Fellows,

As we near the 15th year of DLI, we are working to deepen relationships among our more than 1,800 Riley Fellows across South Carolina. One way to do so is to highlight a sampling of your achievements and honors – see below! We'll also be creating opportunities throughout the year for Fellows to connect, starting November 8th with former astronaut and head of NASA Charles Bolden, who is speaking at our climate change event. We'll reserve seats for you at the event, and rumor has it he'll be at Greenville's Up On The Roof after the event – please join us there!

Mayor Billy Keyserling (Lowcountry, Fall 2010) was honored by the Conservation Voters of South Carolina. More

Mayor Terence Roberts (Upstate, Fall 2007) was chosen as a United Way Communitarian. More

S.C. Senator Mia McLeod (Lowcountry, Fall 2012) was selected for the Aspen Institute Rodel Fellowship. More

Dick and Tunky Riley WhatWorksSC Celebration and Luncheon

Oct. 24, 12:30 p.m. – 2:00 p.m., Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center

Special guests Representatives Rita Allison and James Smith (Riley Fellow) and Linda O'Bryon, president and CEO of South Carolina ETV (Riley Fellow). Learn more and register.

Climate Change is Real: Now What?

Nov. 8 & 9, 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m., Furman University

Keynote speakers Nov. 8: Charles Bolden, former astronaut and head of NASA, and Nov. 9: Bob Inglis, former U.S. Congressman and CEO, RepublicEN.org. Riley Fellows have exclusive access to reserved seating! Email Judy McKenney to reserve your seat, or learn more on our website.

Have you or another Riley Fellow been in the news lately? Please share the link to the story with Courtenay Nantz, Riley Institute senior associate (and Riley Fellow, Upstate, Spring 2012).

Nominate a Future Riley Fellow here!

Follow us on Social Media

