

Kathy Creswell is currently in her fourth year as the Assistant Principal at Hillcrest High School in Simpsonville, S.C. Although Mrs. Creswell was born in Asheville, N.C., she was raised in Fountain Inn, S.C. and attended Greenville County Schools.

Before coming to Hillcrest High School, Mrs. Creswell earned a B.A. and a M.A. from Furman University and an Ed.S from Converse College. She began her career in the construction industry upon graduating from Furman, and progressed forward into the food service industry. In 1998, she went back to Furman to earn her M.Ed. and a teaching certificate. She worked as a Social Studies teacher from 1998 to 2004 at Hillcrest High School before she was promoted to the Assistant Principal position that she holds today.

Mrs. Creswell has been a consultant for the Riley Institute at Furman from 2003 to the present. She also serves on the Political Science Advisory Board at Furman, is a past participant of the Riley Institute's Teachers of Government program, and is a committee member for the Furman Education Grant program. She is a Liberty Scholar participant, a member of both the ASCD and the SCASA, a participant in the Developing Aspiring Principals Program with the South Carolina Department of Education, and was recognized consecutively from 2000-2005 for Who's Who In American Teaching.

Mrs. Creswell has been married for twenty-five years and has a twenty-one year old daughter.